Letters From Oman

Synopsis

By the author of "Travels with a 2CV" & "The Secret World of Mr Dario Graptus" Annie, in her twenties, has been posted to Oman to work in a predominately male world. In a series of letters to her friend, Cara, in the UK, she describes the ups and downs of expat. life as well as her impressions of the country, its beautiful beaches, wadis and mountains. Determined to enjoy her freedom in this unfamiliar environment, Annie relates the humorous side of her adventures and personal encounters; but then even paradise can be tinged with tragedy. Based on the personal experience of the author, this is Annie's fictional view of life in Oman. Most of the places are real but the characters exist only in the author's imagination.
