Vermont Travel Journal

Synopsis

The 6" x 9" journal is sized to fit in most glove compartments, purses, backpacks, and totes. Its durable cover has a smooth matte finish and the spiral binding allows the book to lay flat for ease of use. It is printed on classic, cream colored, acid-free, archival paper that will preserve travel memories for years to come. Vintage Vermont postcards from another century provide the design element for the covers and complimentary interior pages. A map of Vermont county and town boundaries is also included, as well as a useful list of Vermont Travel Resources - maps, books, and websites - an all in one reference and notebook. All of Vermont's 255 civic/geographic entities or "places" - 237 towns, 9 cities, 5 unorganized towns, 3 gores, and 1 grant - are listed alphabetically, along with their charter, grant or patent date, on lightly-lined writing pages. The adventurous traveler is encouraged to record a favorite memory from each of these places, or to simply validate their visit in the allotted space to create a unique, treasured keepsake.

Sometimes simple is best. This travel journal is a perfect accompaniment for your journey around the wonderland called Vermont. It fits in your glove compartment. It lies flat so that you can write on it anywhere. The paper stock is sturdy, and there's just enough information on all of Vermont's 255 places to get you started. The real star of the show, however, is YOU and your observations/notes/recollections and captured memories of your experiences town-by-town and place-by-place. All you need is your Travel Journal and a pen. The beautiful state of Vermont will provide the inspiration.

Discovering Vermont's "hills and valleys", and recording the dates and details of my visits in this travel journal, provides me with a unique souvenir of many happy days in the Green Mountain state.
