High-flying Helicopters (Amazing Machines)

Synopsis

Hover in the air with some wacky animal pilots in this cheerful picture book all about helicopters. Spirited wordplay, vibrant art, plus a visual dictionary, make this title a must have for bookshelves everywhere. This book is filled with lively rhyming text by the award-winning poet Tony Mitton that perfectly complements Ant Parker's bold, bright illustrations. A picture dictionary identifying helicopter parts builds vocabulary and makes learning about helicopters exciting and fun.

Tony Mitton is a widely anthologized children's poet, as well as a teacher and performing poet. His Royal Raps won the 1997 Nottinghamshire Libraries/Dillons Children's Book Award. His recent collection of poetry, "Plum," won the Publishers Weekly 2003 Cuffies Award for Best Book of Poetry. Tony teamed with illustrator Ant Parker on several books, including Dazzling Diggers, Roaring Rockets, and Terrific Trains. Ant Parker studied drawing and printing at the Bath Academy of Art in England and has taught papermaking, printing and bookbinding workshops for children. Toddlers and parents around the globe have discovered the irresistible appeal of his wacky cartoon characters in Flashing Fire Engines, Terrific Trains, Dazzling Diggers, and Roaring Rockets. Other titles include Charlie the Chicken and Desmond the Dog.

Our 3 yr old granddaughter adores this book. It is her 3rd book in this series of Tony Mitton Amazing

Machines books. She looks all the details and has plenty of questions. Her parents and her grandparents highly recommend this book for young children. The writing is easily understood by children and the colorful illustrations contribute to the child's understanding of what could be complicated operations.

Love reading this book to my grandson. It's not too long has colorful pictures of helicopters. My grandson loves this book. Thank you again

Great book my granddaughter loves it

All of the "Amazing Machines" books are entertaining and educational. The illustrations are colorful and appealing and my son reads them over and over again. We bought every book in the series and have not been disappointed!

Cute book

Grandson loves helicopters. Cute book.

We love these books. My son insisted that we buy the entire collection! I love the rhymes and enjoy reading these to my preschooler.

My grandson loves this writer and his books.
