San Sebastian, La Rioja And The Basque Country (an Etravellers Guide)

Synopsis

The Basque area of north east Spain has one of the prettiest coastlines in Europe. Nestled up against the French border and hemmed in by the Pyrenees, this area has a lot to offer the traveller, from the chic and bustling cities of San Sebastian and Bilbao to the shoreline's golden beaches. But as we head south from the Atlantic, the locale soon changes into arid plains and then wine country. La Rioja wines are renowned throughout the world for their deep rich flavours, steeped in tradition. A short trip to the east will find you in the Navarre region, as we drop into Pamplona and its famous bull running festival. This essential travellers ebook will highlight the attractions in each of these places, offering advice on what to see and where to eat, as well as little more depth, especially amongst the vineyards. This book is part of the eTravellers guide series.
