Customer Reviews

previewed book at local library. seems to be a junior high level book. no-nonsense, plenty of drawings for inspiration. briefly describes textiles used and historical periods referenced. planning to use this for bellydance costuming.

This book was a bit long-winded but seemed to give a very accurate historical picture of the clothing for Ancient Egypt. The author has gone through and describe exactly who wore what from the nobles to the priests to the workman and everything in between in Ancient Egypt. There are numerous black and white drawings and a few color pictures and accurate descriptions of all the outfits. See and read about what an ancient Egyptian woman may have worn while dancing. With some simple sewing skills or even a long piece of cloth one could imitate a costume from Ancient Egypt. If you've ever wondered what the Egyptians wore than this is the book for you.
