ON Point is broken down in 5 parts, the Table of Contents include 27 chapters for 27 years of coaching Division 1 basketball. The Forward is written by her life partner and spouse Lynn Holleran

Excellent read. Effectively breaks down the keys to success in any career path. Stresses the importance of having confidence within and letting the people around you know that you care. This book will give you the tools to improve or strengthen your leadership qualities.

I can't recommend this book highly enough, and don't think for a second that you have to be a part of the sport's world to appreciate the wisdom, the life lessons, and the greatest truths about leadership. This book is for everyone and everyone who reads it will have countless "ah-ha" and "light bulb" moments. Pam's brutal honesty and refreshing vulnerability sets her apart as she shares her very personal story..the high and lows, the victories and the disappointments. As a very public figure in a male-dominated industry, you may think you know Pam's story, but in ON Point she finally reveals the well-kept secrets about the private world of Division I athletics. However, everyone can relate to her anecdotes and everyone should take her advice. She speaks from the heart, and is a shining example of strength, resilience, perseverance, and passion. Thank you, Pam!

Great reading.!! Action steps after each chapter. You can start to make positive real changes in your life.

Great Book!!Inspiring and challenges you at the same time.Recommend it to everyone.

This is fine and so good
