A Hilltop In Tuscany

Synopsis

Mary Davis, Liz's widowed mother has returned to Paris and made peace with the past, but now she struggles with conflicted feelings about the two men in her life • Parisian Jean-Marc, the first love who's never forgotten her and Luca Santo, the Italian who's introduced Mary to new adventures. Liz Davis's carefully constructed world and her engagement to Jeffrey Scott have already begun to crumble when an unexpected phone call summons Liz to her mother's side in Florence, Italy. Together again, Mary and Liz strive to resolve the turmoil between them and the men they love. Does the very thing their hearts long for most await them in the fabled hills of Tuscany?

Customer Reviews

This was a wonderful sequel full of twists and turns, and settling unresolved plots in the previous book. Stephanie Grace Whitson weaves an amazing tale of God's grace and goodness. Her dialogue is smooth and her character development realistic.

I loved this book. I have read the first book also. They did my heart good. Read both. They are worth every penny. Take a bow, Stephanie Whitson. Lady, you can write a book like no other!

I connected with Mary and Liz in the first book and couldn't wait to read more. I love the characters, the life lessons.

Stephanie Grace Whitson, a favorite author. This is a great story, and I recommend it!

I looked for a sequel, but did not find one. I will look again when I finish my current selection.

I loved the characters in this book. I read it straight through. It was a light, satisfying read. Would love more of her books.

...One of my favorites...

Really enjoyed this book and the quick delivery of it. My book club read it and thoroughly enjoyed it. The service was speedy and the quality of the book was excellent.
