Kyle Ellison began researching the island of Maui when he first moved there at the tender age of five. Back then, the island still had three sugar mills, Wailea didn't exist, and early mornings were punctuated by the sound of bombs falling on Kaho'olawe. The island has changed considerably since then, but Kyle's love of Maui has remained. A Maui resident, surfer, and diver, Kyle has led groups of divers as a divemaster at Molokini, led scuba tours on the island of Lana'i, hosted hundreds of hikers on Maui, and proposed to his wife off the island of Moloka'i while diving with hammerhead sharks. Kyle's son can usually be found splashing in the water at Baldwin Beach. As a freelance writer, Kyle's work has appeared in the San Francisco Chronicle, Travel + Leisure, Maui No Ka 'Oi, Ka'anapali Magazine, AOL Travel, Escape, Journey Viator, Gadling, Afar, and the Huffington Post, and on the Travel Channel. His travels have taken him to 65 countries and 49 U.S. states. He also helped found a nonprofit organization that provides scholarships for students in Cambodia. I can not recommend this book highly enough! The author gives fantastic insight into the best sights and activities on Maui, Molokai and Lanai. One of my favourite features of this book is the "Best of Maui in 10 Days" which is a great guide on how to make the most of your trip. This book is an absolute must have for anyone going, or thinking of going, to Maui, Molokai or Lanai!

My fiancé and I are going to Maui for our honeymoon after we get married in December 2017. The previous reviews on this book made me want to buy it for our upcoming honeymoon and I have to say, it is great!!! There are tons of tips and tricks, super detailed directions (at mile marker __, take a left etc) and even lists some average costs of things, and a glossary of commonly used lingo there. It has helped us find things google has not given us. What a great help planning things to do. I cannot wait!!

Very helpful travel guide.

Nice book.

I recommend having the hard copy for easy access

Great book!

So easy to read. A must if you are travelling to Maui!

AAA Seller -- very helpful guidebook.
