30 Days To A Clean And Organized House

Synopsis

Overwhelmed by clutter? Ashamed of your home? Do you wonder where to start cleaning, or feel like you spend hours cleaning but have nothing to show for it? This book, by Katie Berry of the popular blog HousewifeHowTos.com, will show you how. Readers describe it as: "Life changing" "The structure and routine I needed" "A schedule that does not break my back" The day-by-day plan will guide you through every room, every cupboard, every closet of your home. You'll get rid of clutter and clean every surface using the book's checklists and visual charts. You'll also learn how to make your own natural cleaning products to protect your indoor air and keep your family healthy while also keeping your home clean. When you're done, the Monthly Cleaning Routine will show you how to keep your home just as clean and organized in a fraction of the time.

Katie Berry is the author of the popular homemaking website, HousewifeHowTos.com. A self-confessed neat freak, Katie has spent the past two decades developing streamlined routines to cook healthy meals from scratch, clean and organize the home, do laundry efficiently, and save money without losing her sense of humor. Her books are written in an easy-to-read style with clear instructions and have helped thousands transform their homes in ways they never thought possible. As readers have said, "Katie makes you feel like you're sitting there listening to your best, non-judgmental friend who just wants to see you succeed."

This book gives easy step by step guild to a REALLY clean and ORGANIZED home. With my overloaded schedule, I never thought I could achieve such a clean and organized home (including Kids rooms)! AMAZINGLY.....it stays clean and organized with the help of your Daily Tidy Up routine! I get a ton of compliments from my friends as well as family :-D I am always proud and eager to share that your book was my inspiration! Following your guild has been truly life changing for me and my family. THANK YOU!!!! Can't wait to purchase some of your other books :)

You would think that, as someone who works from home, I would have more time to clean and organize my house. Not so! I found that being here all of the time had made me "house blind." Plus, whenever a decision needed to be made about doing chores or working on the business, the business won every time. I tried another "home cleaning & organization system" and it just led me to feeling overwhelmed, guilty and inadequate. This 30 day plan is different. It's simple, straightforward, well organized and not the least bit gushy or preachy. It's practical enough that even my husband is on board. He and I split the tasks on the Daily Whole House Tidy Routine and we alternate rooms each day so there's no more excuses for "house blindness" as one of us always catches what the other may have missed the previous day. We divided and conquered the Daily Cleaning, Organizing and Maintenance tasks so neither of us had the chance to get overwhelmed (or lazy). The results have been fantastic. Although it may take us another 30 days to really get out ahead of things, we're really enjoying our freshly cleaned and organized home. No matter how comfy we get I don't think we'll ever give up the Daily Whole House Tidy Routine or the rest of the rest of the 30-Day Plan.

I'm only on Day 4 and my house has never looked cleaner... With the daily upkeep, the organization "chore" of the day, the extra care area during daily cleaning and the major tackle "chore" ..it's such a relief to finally have a schedule that works! I use to kill myself to try and get everything done in 1 or 2 days and by the time I turned around the husband and kids had destroyed all my hard work. This system seems to have me on top of everything without the stress I used to feel. Thank you Thank you Thank you!!!

I wish my mother had taught me how to keep house this way! (I wish someone had taught HER this way.) It's not enough to know you are supposed to do certain tasks, you also need to know the most effecient way to do them AND be motivated not to think, "Whew! Check!" and then not maintain things when they are finally clean and orderly. Her system, allotting specific tasks of cleaning, organizing, and maintaining for each day, is straightforward and DOABLE. You can read lots of books motivating you to have the house--and life--you want, but this one takes you past "wanting" to actually doing and feeling good about it in the process. Get the book. Do the plan. Amaze yourself.(Note: I bought the eBook first, but as soon as the paperback came out I bought one for me and one as a gift.)

I have tried many how to clean and get organized books, none of them are as effective as this one. As a wife, homeschooler, mom, and assistant to my husband in our home based business, this book is great. The daily cleaning routine has already made my home seem like a whole new place. :) thanks for your reasoned approach.

Recently displaced from corporate America I now find myself without a housekeeper and I'm as determined to get my house in order as I was as driven in my career. Biggest problem is that I felt so overwhelmed that I didn't know where to start. Thank goodness I found this book. I've read through it completely and don't honestly know that I will complete this task in 30 days. (6 years of living in a home with two working folks with a two hour daily commute has created a wreck). But I feel like I have the help I need now. Only on day one. My spice cabinet is clean and organized, most of the clothes are washed, the kitchen is clean, the living room is livable and best of all, I feel a sense of accomplishment. The kindle links to the website and homemade cleaning products are great. The only down side, so far, is the lack of a table of contents, which to me is important. Would recommend this book for other domestically impaired folks

I am so happy that I found this book. It is written in clear and concise language and only takes about an hour or so to read. I'm only on day 2 of 30 and it has already proven to be life changing. This is the first approach to cleaning that has felt natural and effective to me. The 30 days will require a large investment of time and effort so at times it may be necessary to break the days up a little bit, but the payoff will be well worth it in the end.

This system is exactly what I needed to actually do the cleaning. I mean, I know HOW to clean a house - I just don't DO it. Having a clearly organized, logical plan is what makes the difference. The Daily Routine can be accomplished in just a few minutes. The biggest lesson I learned here is that like anything else in life, preparation is key. Spend some time getting the products and equipment you need (which are minimal) and make sure they're available in the right places. I now have the homemade all-purpose cleaner spray bottle and cleaning rags under every sink - why not? It's inexpensive and makes it just that much more likely I'll take 2 minutes to clean the bathroom sink in the morning. The larger daily cleaning tasks are less overwhelming because you just deal with one at a time. The order in which they're done is very clever, they build up so that things STAY clean for longer, and you're not undoing your work by making a mess somewhere else. Both of us work full-time, and there's no way we can go through this in 30 days, but that's OK - the house looks better than ever, the Daily Routine keeps it maintained, so I don't mind if it takes 60 days or 90.
