Customer Reviews

Great guides ..pocket sized..accurate information

I purchased this useful and concise pocket guide to assist me in my travels to the Algarve last month which I had never been to before. The guide has much useful information in a 144 page booklet. It is well organized and easy to use. I appreciated the map on page 18 & 19 which reveals the regions of The Algarve. The book is organized into regions starting with the capital of the region Faro. The pull out map in the back cover is very useful in discovering small towns but does not show the national roads. It has an index that could be expanded. This book will accompany me again when I go to Portugal.

Great book lots of information recommended

Very informative. Glad we bought it. Odd that there is not one mention of the city of Albufeira other than it showing up on the removable map.
