This is a wonderful book. It should be in stock all of the time. It is easy to read and explains the German grammar in a concise manner.

This handbook is excellent. It explains all difficult and confusing stages in the German language.

I used this a standalone companion to my German course using another textbook series. It is an excellent and concise guide to all the grammar that I had scattered over many lessons and handouts. Now it is the one book I use regularly as I continue to practice on my own. Highly recommended! It would get a fifth star if it were available in Kindle form so I always had it available with me. Language providers need to realize some of us don't want textbooks with us...especially in our briefcases.
