Had the book years ago and lost it in Katrina. The blinis are to die for.

The Russian Tea Room is a thing of the past -- TOO bad. It was a landmark place in NYC. Maybe someone will bring it back. In the meantime, -- I have this book -- and use it!

I bought this because I am reading The Russian Tea Room book and was curious to see the recipes. It is great to see what made the history of this restaurant and the differences in our food choices now.

this book has THE BEST recipe for moussaka...typical of a greek menu...but follow the directions and you cannot go wrong...fantastic book.

old recipes I remember and love- great condition- food a little out of my tradition but delicious- Desserts out of this world love the book, awesome condition

I used to eat here, yes, a few years ago... But I can pretend that I am sitting there with my stroganoff, my bread and butter, in the middle of New York, back in the day. I thought it quite wonderful and I love that the writer ties in history with the recipes. I have had nothing but great success with used hardback cookbooks purchased on .

I haven't tried the recipes or read the book. I bought it because my Dad spent time at the Russian Tea Room when he lived in New York.
