Customer Reviews

Very useful and complete. Make sure you download to your phone so that the Google maps link to give directions.

I have been browsing the book, and haven't gone to Israel yet (really the ultimate test of usefulness). I have found the information to be of some help, but as with many other guidebooks the maps and text are poorly integrated, making it difficult to connect information with location in a way you can use. There is also not enough practical information about how to get around, travel times, etc.

Useful information although things aren't always in the place I would look for them. Maps are not terribly helpful for details but do give an overall impression of the area.

Worth the price

Great guide to towns, cities, and the culture of the Holy Land. I plan on sticking with the North District, where John the Baptist taught Jesus of Nazareth about lots of things...that changed our world for the better.

Great book!

Very up to date and informative.

This book delivers on the basic information you expect from this publisher. However, it lacks in practical information about what you will actually see or insider details that would prepare the traveler for the experience. DK Eyewitness is a much more useful book.
