Skateboard Stickers (Mini)

Synopsis

This is the first book to celebrate the use of stickers in skateboarding. Showing the full spectrum of skate sticker art, it brings together over 350 of the most memorable stickers ever produced. Stickers became extremely important in the late 1980s and early 90s when many smaller, skater-owned companies emerged— they are an easy way to get brands noticed and virtually every board graphic is also available in sticker form. Nearly every skater has a sticker collection of some sort, either on a bedroom door, on the fridge or in a shoe box. From Wes Humpston and Dogtown's stickers in the 1970s to Birdo at Consolidated's "Don't Do It" campaign, Skateboard Stickers features the very best designs, selected by pro skateboarders past and present. It includes sticker-related stories and articles, such as the story of Death skateboards or Jim Phillips' legendary Screaming Hand sticker logo for Speed Wheels Santa Cruz, and features quotes from skateboarders describing what stickers mean to them.

Steve Cardwell runs his own design company Fifteenen Design, which produces work for the skateboard, snowboard and music industries. Mark Munson is an accomplished skater, snowboarder and cinematographer.

I bought it for my daughter to show her how it use to be. I skated pro for 3 years and wanted her to see our culture.

It is a book but not stickers

Loved it!

great book encasing all the the most memorable ones from childhood and some that I'd never seen before.

Did not have one sticker it was a damn book of pictures of stickers rip off. Good for fireplace tho....

The book is... not bad. But you really have to add to description that it DOES NOT HAVE peelable stickers.

This "BOOK" is awesome, brought back many memories. Can't believe people thought that there would actually be real stickers in this book. 350, old school possibly collectors item stickers for $11.30??? The actual stickers would have been a bonus but I would have expected to pay way more if that was the case.

It is not clear that the book does not come with actual stickers.. I can't express to you how disappointed i am.
