I read book 1 couldn't t put it down couldn't wait for bComing Homeook 2 for the continuations it was awesome I love reading Amish stories they are clean and descent .. Old fashion Morals which we don't have these days. I have over 200 Amish stories on my Kindle.

So sad about Ms Winnie but loved that Rhoda and Aaron were able to get see that God and love never fails.

Be sure and have a box of tissues handy with this one! I blundered through most of it. A wonderful finish to this story, but with some very tearful steps along the way. I most definitely recommend reading this story and all three in this group.

A very good series. This series of books could have more written in it. It would be fun to read about their lives after they are married.

Life has a way of slipping little surprises upon us. Some are good and some are part of life but still unpleasant.

Loved it

In this 3rd part of the saga, Rhoda buries her Mam and her sister no longer needs her help. Except for watching Aaron's house and her bees in their new home, She has nothing to do except to pray for Aaron to return. This is a wonderful end to this Amish story.
