This amazing fourth edition is truly the Bible of the ceramics field. A fantastic resource for dealers and collectors alike. Al and Susan Bagdades' outdid themselves when they put this wonderful guide together. It is perfect for novice collectors or established dealers. This is an expanded edition of their classic reference with 10,000 new listings, 600 black and white photos, and 16 [ages of color photos. Plus there are new sections on Cottageware, Pilkington, Royal Winton, Ruskin, and Wade. Sadly, Susan passed away in 2003, while working with Al on this book. Despite his loss, Al persevered and completed this edition as a tribute to his beloved wife.

This is always a great resource for me. I have earlier editions. It is helpful regardless of whether you know a little or a lot about antique pottery and porcelain. Aside from specifically researching an item, it is interesting to just pick up and review. I use it often...one of my favorite publications.

Excellent resource! I particularly like the history provided. Do not expect extensive listings of items by maker/factory with estimated worth. Examples of pieces and value are given but by no means extensive or inclusive.

It helps me with my research on items I have and may get now i have the book i needed to get a idea of what pottery is worth and the brandalso the price
