The Ruby Moon (Thirteen)

Synopsis

Much is at stake while the kingdom enjoys the greatest games on earth. The castle is buzzing with excitement as preparations begin for the upcoming Olympiad. Everyone knows the queen is still on the hunt for the king's rightful heir, and kids begin mysteriously disappearing from the castle. When Avery learns that a male runner is needed for an important race in the Olympiad, she volunteers so she can get close to the action. Will she be able to hide her true identity... or will she be discovered? One slip-up could mean a trip to the dungeon or worse.

best-selling Left Behind series. Trisha White Priebe is a wife, mom, writer, and shameless water polo enthusiast. She also serves as an assistant to Jerry B. Jenkins.

My daughter loves this series so much that we can barely get her to put the books down! Sleep? Food? Who needs it? Ha ha. I'm so pleased that she's found something more engrossing than her glowing screen. YouTube, take a backseat!

As a teacher of young teens, I am always excited to recommend a wholesome book. The storyline of this drama is captivating. Young teens love talking about the characters. They can hardly wait for the third book in the series to be released. I, as an adult, love the story too.

My preteen daughter loved this book. You say "Tuck" and she giggles and she wants to change her name to "Avery." I appreciate the good storyline with morals taught throughout. Looking forward to finding out what happens next.

Given as a gift.

Ahhh! So good and the suspense! So much mystery! How am I going to wait for the sequel?? I will be counting down the days.

My daughter has been waiting for this book to arrive. She devoured the book in one day and declared it to be amazing!

My son read it in two days. Now he is counting down the days until the next one comes out in April.

Just finished the glass castle this is a sequel to it love it so far
