Students can easily find what they need. --Susanmarie Harrington, University of Vermont "I like the focus on different types of academic essays arguments, rhetorical analyses, research reports, personal narratives, literary analyses, and so on. I actually changed the focus of my class to address these kinds of writing. --Jonathan Purkiss, Pulaski Technical College "For its price, The Little Seagull is the best college-level handbook available. --Paul Licata, Valencia College "The combined glossary/index is great. Students get to understand an unfamiliar term and at the same time find a page with further instruction. This is efficient, reader-centered writing. --Carolyn J.

Fulford, North Carolina Central University "The Little Seagull Handbook models the very concise and precise writing we hope our students will achieve . keeping details to a minimum and clearly explaining the essentials. --Robert Hurd, Anne Arundel Community College"

Required textbook for an English class. Very informative while at the same time concise. Provided plenty of examples and explanations of different citation styles. I expect to use this book as a reference when I need to write another academic paper.

Just please do not throw away the paper card inside the wrapping that has the online code. We did that and did we pay for it? Yes, yes we did.

Nice and small pocketbook. Very easy to carry around and easy to navigate within the book with the tabs. I still hate to write but it is helpful to have and they make it as easy as it can be looking up stuff with all the tabs in place.

Awesome book! If you need it, it's required, and/or will actually use it, I say buy it. Bookstores can be expensive and this one comes with the exercises. It's tiny and easy to carry around unlike a gigantic textbook..

Pretty good little book. Used it quite often for a number of papers. Still reference it when I forget citation rules. Easy to navigate. Sections are color coded for MLA, APA, and a lot more. Really good little book. Mine is spiral bound, got it used, super cheap, good condition. Kept it to reference back. There is a newer version out, but it is really the same thing with some updated rules that your teacher can tell you, or you can find on OWL.
