Customer Reviews

"The fact that the featured cat often seems to be wearing an entirely serious, sometimes even worried, expression only makes it all the more adorable." -- Kirkus.

Shira Evans started her career in educational publishing in 2001 after teaching English in several countries around the world. Since then she has written and edited a wide variety of materials for K-12, including books, teacher's guides, and online activities. Evans has two adventurous young boys and enjoys exploring and learning more about the world with them.

My 2 year old LOVES this entire series of Nat. Geo Readers... I have purchased about 25 different titles, "pre-readers" as well as Level 1 & 2 readers. She loves them all & will ask for certain ones.

The "pre-readers" level books are extremely simple & great because she memorizes the words & can "read" it herself. We love the more advanced ones too, because there is more information to talk about. I have learned quite a few facts, myself!) What a great series. The price is reasonable & pictures are great. These are really getting her interested in nature, animals & science... I will continue to buy these as they are released, for our collection!

My granddaughter loves it.

Cute & my daughter loves it. This is a great book for toddlers and young children.

These are very thin books, which a child can easily tear. But they are also very colorful, with very simple words. Definitely worth it...get two, in case one gets ripped. Normally, first readers are thick cardboard stock, these pages are not as durable.

The book is okay, it's got nice pictures, but very little words. My 1 year old likes it.

Cute

Perfect for the grandkids.

Not thick enough. It's a very nice book.
