Book by Pflughoft, Fred

For anyone who has ever been through Wyoming, this book will be a treasure! I can visit the magical land anytime I like. Stunning pictures!

I bought this for a gift...The "new" book seems expensive and the "used" is acceptable; however, I would have liked to have made the gift a "new" book not "like new"...O'well I'm certain the photos in the book will be enjoyed

I ordered this book for my 95 year old Grandmother, who was born and grew up in Wyoming. I was hoping that this book would be exactly what it is - full of lots of big photos that she can see with her aging eyes, and very few words. Mostly, the book just has captions on the photos, and very little text other than this. It isn't a book to learn a lot about Wyoming through, it's simply a very nice pictorial coffee table book of Wyoming. The book is primarily photos of nature...the hills, mountains, rivers and etc...very beautiful, but I would have liked to have seen equal measure given to the historical buildings in Wyoming. There's many small old historical towns with charming one-room chapels and schools still standing - and it would have been nice to include some photos like this (or old post offices, trading posts, gas stations, etc.) in the book. Nonetheless, a nice gift for someone from Wyoming or who just loves the state. Incidentally, I just noticed that there's also a Wild and Beautiful Wyoming II listed on - so perhaps that book will give more notice to the historical buildings of Wyoming.

I live in Virginia. But I have been to Wyoming on vacation and I believe it is the most beautiful place on earth. Someday I hope to live there. Finally there is a beautiful picturebook of the whole state . It is perfect! I just LOVE it! The day I received it I went through it 4 times from beginning to end . After I get off this computer I will go through it again. The photography is incredible. It takes you right to Wyoming and it gives me goosebumps just thinking about it. THANK YOU MR.PFLUGHOF! I only wished I could get your signature in my book.
