This is a fine, and recommended, companion book for Familia Romana. I've not purchased the other two books but, most likely, will in the near future.

I love Lingua Latina, and I love the workbook. But I only gave it 4 stars because there ARE a few mistakes in the workbook, and it is missing an answer key (sometimes... u just REALLY wanna know if you're right...). Overall, though... I would still recommend it to anyone.

Hands down the best!

This exercise book provides invaluable practice, which enhances mastery of the Latin language.

Excellent product and excellent seller, a real asset for

These exercises accompany a reader and are a useful companion to it. The exercises are all in Latin; in other words, you can not receive instructions or grammar instruction in English. The student has to work at her/his lessons in the "foreign language." This is a good "angle" from which to approach lessons in Latin, for it forces the student to think about the lessons in a different way. Maybe these exercises are not the only ones the student should use, but they are a good part of a total Latin curriculum.

The book is already falling apart at the binding.

Thank you very much!
