When Shiner Died: A Children's Book About Pet Loss

Synopsis

When Shiner Died is the story of a family pet—a yellow lab—that died. It's a children's book about pet loss and grieving the death of a beloved animal. Two members of Shiner's adopted family tell the story. They are Maggie Roxanne and Luke Zamzow Hauder, ages 6 and 4. When Shiner Died will almost certainly bring tears to adult eyes, and children will identify with the story, as told by their peers. The author of the book, Rebecca S. Hauder, is a Registered Nurse, 25-year grief therapist, and grandmother of the two storytellers. She is also the author of The Nature of Grief: Photographs and Words for Reflection and Healing, the Grief Support Mailings, the Grief Support Group Manual, and numerous articles related to grief and loss. Apart from the story of Shiner's death, the book contains several pages for young readers to share about their pet, and suggestions for adults in helping children following the loss of a pet. When Shiner Died will make a wonderful resource for a child, or an adult, who recently lost their pet.

My 4 year old godson lost his dog and best buddy almost a month ago. For the first few weeks he seemed ok but then it sunk in that she wasn't coming back. He was having a very hard time understanding and doing a lot of crying. I ordered him this book (and one other) and 2 days later his mother is raving about the books. This one in particular is really helping him understand and work through his feelings. I was intrigued because the book is written from a child his ages perspective and I think that really plays a part in his reaction. The book has space for my Godson to contribute; so he is drawing pictures of his dog in happy places. Its really jump started the healing process for him!

Straight from the child's point of view. Full of photographs, that invite you to meet the family and see in their backyard. My 8 yr. old granddaughter immediately read it, even took it to the bathroom to finish the book. Her mother really liked it, too .It was appropriate for their pet loss, and I received it quickly, 3 days after ordering.

Very good book for little children to help through bereavement of loss of dog.

This purchase was selected by our granddaughter. Bought and paid for by her (saved her own money) and ordered by me. It arrived, she was thrilled, and from what I understand she loves it.

This story of Shiner's life and death told by children is heartwarming. The loss of our furry friends, who are a part of the family, is a heartbreaker. This book provides a simple and familiar story as well as interactive suggestions to help children cope with their loss. I highly recommend this book to pet lovers of all ages.

An endearing book to help children understand and cope with the loss of a beloved pet. Beautiful photography. I highly recommend this book.

Great story about grief, perfect for young kiddos.
