Just as i thought

nice condition

Schirmer collections offer excellent, reasonably-priced, editions of classical music and this selection of Mendelssohn's fine Lieder Ohne Woerter includes many of the most popular pieces written for the piano. Many are playable by intermediate pianists, with the rest being more advanced, but all are wonderful. I recommend this book to all pianists.

What charming pieces--without words no less--but surely as descriptive as a novel. Each one is a whiff of emotion. Melody, harmony, form unfold with the freedom of romantic expression so typical of the late romantic period (1850-1900). The level of technical difficulty varies from demanding to moderately easy. Some selections make for a delightful offertory in churches that appreciate and court the "classical" approach to music appreciation.

Replacement copy for my personal use.

I love his songs without words! This is a good version, clean printing, easy to read.

Great collection of piano music.

As a long-time beginner who is slowly shifting toward an intermediate piano hobbyist, I wanted something of a 'real' music book other than my usual assortment of music. I am so delighted with this book. This is my treasure. The copy I purchased was tenderly used and with gentle pencil writing, I am grateful for the former owner. I am grateful for the other reviewers and the company that handled my copy and .
