Australia - Focus On

Synopsis

Each title in this series explores a particular country through those features which make up its individuality and character. It describes how the people live from day to day, and explains in simple terms the country's social, economic and political structure. This title on Australia looks at the first immigrants that populated Australia, and the native Aboriginal culture that was forced to struggle for survival. Natural wonders such as the Great Barrier Reef and Ayers Rock are featured, as well as the major Australian cities. Farming and industry, sport and culture are some of the topics covered in this guide to modern Australian life.
